

We have replaced the obsolete and inactive solar panels with new versions. These contribute to the hot water requirement of the whole house and should provide most of our requirement during the summer months.